

craftmanship, dedication to their clients, and commitment to environmental stewardship. It has been a staple in the community for over forty years, and continues to strive to improve our state and its services. Mr. Miller and his employees embody the hard work, skill, and grit that is embedded in our Wyoming way of life. I thank Mr. Miller for the excellent example he has set for businesses across the state and country.

Again, Mr. Speaker, I would like to congratulate Tyler Miller on being named the 2018 Business Person of the Year for the State of Wyoming, and thank him for his hard work and contributions to our community. He and his family should be very proud.

HONORING EVANGELIST DR. LENA BELL TYLER

HON. BENNIE G. THOMPSON

OF MISSISSIPPI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 8, 2018

Mr. THOMPSON of Mississippi. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a pillar of the community, Evangelist Dr. Lena Bell Tyler.

Growing up in Raymond, Mississippi Lena was swayed by the teaching of her parents, Will and Pearl Singleton. Her Mother was very much involved in community activities. Lena learned very early in life, that if you want to make a difference in life you must be involved.

Lena Tyler's professional occupation was in the Human Service field as a file clerk, in 1975 at Hinds County Public Welfare, now called Hinds County Department of Human Service. While working in the File Room, Lena would read cases involving neglect and abuse of children, causing the State system involvement, which motivated her to enroll in night school at JSU to work toward a Degree in Social Work. She retired as a Plans Grants Manager with the City of Jackson.

A greater contribution to humanity was made in 1997, when Ms. Tyler was elected President of the Mississippi A. Philip Randolph Institute (APRI), becoming the first woman elected to serve in this position, under her leadership the Organization grew in membership and (4) four new Chapters were established.

In 1980 Ms. Tyler got involved in Voter Registration, Voter Education Programs offered by Mississippi A. Philip Randolph Institute (APRI) and became a registered voter and quickly became involved in encouraging youth to get involved in the political process.

Being actively involved in workshops and conferences taught her to always be in touch with the leadership that could make positive impacts on lives of people she served and by going the "Extra Mile" she created positive change in the lives of so many citizens throughout the community.

Founder, President of New Way Proverbs Ministry since 2011, Lena shares the gospel at Community Stewpot, Baptist Adult Day Health Services in Clinton, MS., Magnolia Nursing Home, Ruth Refuge Ministry for Women, and through the Kairos Prison Ministry. She also provides a healing and comforting ministry to patients at Baptist Medical Center, St. Dominic's Hospital and University of Mississippi Medical Center. Lena's ministerial outreach activities also include visiting individuals at their homes. Messages are delivered with printed materials, pamphlets and small gifts acknowledging birthdays and holidays. These Ministries are supported via personal financial donations from family, friends and colleagues.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing Evangelist Dr. Lena Bell Tyler for her dedication to serving others and giving back to the community.

NATHAN HANNAH

HON. ED PERLMUTTER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 8, 2018

Mr. PERLMUTTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and applaud Nathan Hannah for receiving the Arvada Wheat Ridge Service Ambassadors for Youth award.

Nathan Hannah is a student at Mandalay Middle School and received this award because his determination and hard work have allowed him to overcome adversities.

The dedication demonstrated by Nathan Hannah is exemplary of the type of achievement that can be attained with hard work and perseverance. It is essential students at all levels strive to make the most of their education and develop a work ethic which will guide them for the rest of their lives.

I extend my deepest congratulations to Nathan Hannah for winning the Arvada Wheat Ridge Service Ambassadors for Youth award. I have no doubt he will exhibit the same dedication and character in all of his future accomplishments.

POEM IN HONOR OF THE LIFE OF CONGRESSWOMAN LOUISE MCINTOSH SLAUGHTER

HON. JOSEPH CROWLEY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 8, 2018

Mr. CROWLEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor and in memory of a wonderful former Chairwoman from Western New York, Congresswoman Louise Slaughter who blazed new trails and touched many lives. I would like this poem penned in her honor by Albert Carey Caswell be included in the RECORD.

HER GOLDEN YEARS

(By Albert Carey Caswell)

Her Golden Years

As all through here,
'oh how she persevered

As a public servant,
serving her Nation and District here
Walking the Halls of Congress in her Golden Years

While, most people would have been content
To rest and relax and enjoy their remaining days upon this earth as spent

But, that was not her intent
While, into her Golden Years she spent working ever harder here

As she was just reaching her stride so clear
As to new heights she'd climb without fear
As The First Chairwoman of The Rules Committee,

becoming a pioneer
Geez Louise as it all seems clear
How you gave your heart and soul my dear
For Woman's Rights and all that you held dear

As you came into Congress in 1986
with John Lewis that great Civil Rights pioneer

And for America as Frank would say,
"it was a very good year"

Like Henry, Abraham, and Muhammad Ali,
you were born of that Kentucky clay
And as them too,

to greatness you made your way
While, onto that Empire State you'd stay Falling in love with a great man named Bob,
and three beautiful daughters, Robin, Amy,

Megan together you made
And one day in the Halls of Congress, everyone knew you were a Who's Who Because, of the way you carried yourself for all to view

A kind warm woman of character and class,
who stood by her principles steadfast

And when fighting for your legislation you could be as tough as could be,
maybe because you came from that Hatfield's and McCoy's battle between families

As you left behind a lot of gold in your legacy

In her Golden Years for all to see
Your lessons about life and what we can be
That you're never too old to make a difference,

and give back to all of humanity
Or to embark upon a journey to make history

There are Rules to learn about her life,
work long and hard and giving back and you
will burn bright

Rise up to heaven my child,
where your husband Robert awaits with open arms for you and smiles

And now we lay your fine body down to rest
the while
Her Golden years.

TRIBUTE TO CHUCK HALL

HON. SANDER M. LEVIN

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 8, 2018

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Chuck Hall, a close friend and longtime leader in the UAW, who is retiring after 46 years of dedicated service to the union and to his fellow members.

Chuck Hall worked his way up the ranks on behalf of workers and their families. He joined the UAW in 1972 as a member of Local 3, when he worked for Chrysler's Winfield Foundry on the east side of Detroit, Michigan. In 2005, Chuck became a UAW staff member, and in June of 2010, he was elected Director of Region 1 at the UAW's 35th Constitutional Convention. UAW Region 1 has the largest membership of any UAW region, including 52,000 active employees and approximately 100,000 retirees.

As Director of Region 1, Chuck oversees 40 local unions covering 8 counties in Michigan as well as Canada. Throughout his tenure as Director, Chuck has been an energetic and attentive leader committed to ensuring that his brothers and sisters in the UAW are fully represented while training local union officers to be successful leaders themselves. He has hosted hundreds of training programs and conferences to give local union officers the tools they need to effectively conduct strategic planning, enforce health and safety of their members, handle grievances, and run their local unions.

Chuck's leadership extends broadly throughout the community. He serves on the boards
